Mrs. Palmer Entertained Sunday School Class—Lenten Regulations Read—Hooks Will Observe Annual Custom of Celebrating Washington's Birthdays—Notes.
Mrs. Eliza B. Palmer entertained her Sunday school class of the Central Baptist church Thursday afternoon at her home, No. 4 Prospect street.
There were fifteen young ladies present and the afternoon was spent in a pleasant social manner. Refreshments were served. Shepherd B. Palmer, superintendent of the Sunday school, was also a guest.

Mission Father Assisted.
Rev. M. A. Sullivan of the Connecticut apostolate assisted at the services in St. Mary's church on Sunday. At all the masses on Sunday the Lenten regulations were read to the congregations. Services will be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7.30 o'clock during Lent.

Eight Tables at Temperance Society.
There were eight tables of whist played in the Father Mathew hall Saturday night. The prizes were won by John Bradley with 47 points, and the second prize, cigars, was won by William Supa with 46 points.

25 Check Received.
The check for $25 sent by the Reid & Hughes company to Shetucket Engine company, No. 2, has been turned over by the firm, and the money has been turned over to Treasurer David T. Campion, who will add it to the death benefit fund of the company.

Hooks Will Celebrate Washington's Birthdays.
According to their annual custom, Greenville Hook and Ladder company, No. 2, will observe Washington's birthdays with an appropriate celebration and programme this evening.
Their rooms have been attractively decorated with bunting.

Received Valuable Watch.
Matthew Sullivan of Tenet street received a gold watch, said to be valued at $75, at the Polish fair Saturday night. Mr. Sullivan, who is the popular employer of Central's boys, is receiving many congratulations upon his good fortune.

Personals.
John Ryan of Sterling spent Sunday at his home on Sixth street.

Mrs. Patrick Brennan of Seventh street has returned from a few days' visit in Waterbury.

Miss Bessie Conklin of New Haven is spending a few days at her home on North Main street.

Miss Mary Allyn of New Haven has returned after spending a few days with relatives in town.

Mrs. Dennis H. Driscoll and daughter Winifred of North Main street spent Saturday in Hartford.

Mrs. Charles Standish returned to her home on Prospect street Sunday after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Saxton, of Norwich town.

Joseph Carter and Elias P. Smith, both well known conductors on the local trolley lines, leave for Worcester on Saturday for a day's outing. On their return they will take in the firemen's ball at Putnam. A number of other employees of the road intend to be present at the dance.

V. M. C. A. Services.
Rev. H. B. Rankin of Norwalk was the speaker Sunday afternoon at both the Y. M. C. A. meetings, addressing the boys first at 2 o'clock. He gave them an admirable practical talk upon the story of an incandescent lamp. There were about thirty boys attending. At 4 o'clock Rev. Mr. Rankin addressed the girls at a similar meeting, at which there was a good attendance and an edifying presentment of the topic was made by the speaker.

LIQUOR RAID SUNDAY EVENING

Police Visit Eugene McCarty's House at Thamesville Securing Beer, Rock and Rye, Cognac and Port Wine

On Sunday evening the police made a raid for liquor at Thamesville and secured a quantity of liquor from the house of Eugene McCarty, No. 280 West Thames street. The liquor, which was in a pitcher and bottles, was brought to police headquarters, and further developments are expected in a few days. The house is near the city line, being on the east side of the road and adjoins the property where the Sullivan house and saloon were burned last fall. Mr. McCarty conducts a saloon in the building adjoining his house on the north.
There were five members of the police force in the raiding party, Sergeants Twomey and Connell and Policemen Henderson, Morgan and De-Vito. They left police headquarters about 7.45 o'clock and met at the Mc-Carty house in West Thames street, which he the objective point. The intrance was gained without trouble and the house searched, with the result that a pitcher containing beer, bottles with rock and rye, cognac and port wine were secured, and they were brought to the police station in an express wagon about 2.30 o'clock.

BEQUESTS BY MRS. MITCHELL.
Leaves $5,000 to Methodist Church, $2,000 to Academy and $1,000 Each to United Workers and Sheltering Arms

The will of Mrs. John Mitchell was filed in the probate court on Saturday. It was drawn March 14, 1907, and Costello Lippitt and John C. Andrew are named as executors.
Four public bequests are made by Mrs. Mitchell as follows: Five thousand dollars to Trinity Methodist Episcopal church for a perpetual fund to be known as the Joanna D. G. Mitchell fund, the interest to be used for the benefit of the church; $2,000 to the Norwich Free Academy, $1,000 to the United Workers and $1,000 to the Sheltering Arms.

Broke His Nose in Fall.
George Matthews, residing at 428 Boswell avenue, and over 30 years old, was taken with a weak spell Friday afternoon while walking along the street some distance from his home, and had a fall, in which he broke his nose. He was taken to his home in a taxi which was sent for. Dr. J. J.
Donohue attended his injuries.

TAFTVILLE.
Entertainment and Whist Under Auspices of St. Anne's Society—Banquet at Naturalization Club—Mule Spinners Enjoy Social Time—Notes.

The St. Anne's society of the Sacred Heart parish held a whist in the Parish hall Sunday evening, preceded by a one-act play given by six members of the society. The proceeds of the evening were for the benefit of the society. The whist was a success and the social time was enjoyed by all present.

Naturalization Club Enjoys Banquet.
About one hundred of the members of the Naturalization club and their invited guests enjoyed a banquet in the club's hall on Merchants avenue Sunday afternoon. At a short business meeting before the banquet three new members were received with the society and remarks were made by a number of the presidents of the other societies of Taftville, including Napoleon Bonaparte of the St. Louis society, Adelard Ravennell of the Artisans society and Saul Gorman of the Latayette club. Pierre St. Onge of Norwich made a pleasing speech and the closing remarks were given by President Joseph Caron of the Naturalization club. The evening was most enjoyable and a fine menu awaited them.

Mule Spinners Hold Social.
The mule spinners of the Ponemah mills with their families and guests including several from Baltic, held a social in the Parish hall Saturday evening. The evening was a success and a musical programme began at eight o'clock. Arthur S. Watts sang Camp Meeting Time and was forced to give an encore. Baker's organ accompanied the singing. The social was enjoyed by all present. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served and followed by dancing. Baker's organ accompanied the dancing. A fine social evening was passed.

Meeting of Artisans' Society.
A meeting of the Artisans' society was held Sunday at which President Hayward and three new members were present. A committee of five was appointed to devise ways and means by which the amount of money in the treasury of the society may be increased. The committee is: Albert Martell, chairman, Joseph C. Marzan, Marcell Doyan, Leon St. Marie and H.
Parrell. The meeting was a success and will be one of the things arranged.

Whist Party at St. Louis Hall.
The St. Louis society gave a whist party Saturday night, about fifteen tables being played. The prizes were awarded to: First, F. X. Pantaine, a pipe; Miss Alexandra Portier, wine set; second, Louis Bonardier, pack of cards; Miss Dorilla Desjarlais, cup and saucer; and third, Louis Bonardier, Miss Angela Comeau.

Started Upon Barn.
Maxcy W. Store of Norwich avenue has taken the contract to build a barn 20 by 40 for William Dupuy.
Ground was broken for the new building Saturday.

Home from Phillips-Exeter.
Harry E. Prentice of Phillips-Exeter is spending Washington's birthday at the home of his mother, Mrs.
Charles W. Prentice of Slater avenue.

Notes.
In the Sacred Heart church Sunday morning Rev. Arthur O'Keefe read the Lenten regulations of the diocese.
William Desmarais and sister, Miss Ida Desmarais of South A street have been spending a few days in Webster, Mass.

Mrs. Exilda Dupont of No. 15 South C street left Saturday for a two weeks' visit with her son and sister in New Bedford.

Peter Macaurelle entertained a large gathering of friends in a pleasant manner at his home on North A street Saturday evening.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blais of South B street was christened Rosalinda Angelina Blais at the Sacred Heart church last week.

Joseph Fregeau of Providence street left Friday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law in Central Falls.
R. I. Before his return he will visit in Fall River and New Bedford.

About 60 of the friends of Arsene Beasette and Henrietta Germain gave a party in St. Louis hall Saturday evening. A dance was held until 12 o'clock, after which came a musical programme. Music was given by Aure and Rudolph Berard.

taining seven rooms, finished in cypress and provided with steam heat and every convenience.
Plans have been completed for an addition to the mansion house in Willamsburg for M. H. Jones. The plans show a frame building providing 33 additional rooms.

OBITUARY.
Rev. Dr. J. Riley Johnson.
Rev. J. Riley Johnson, D.D., formerly of this city and one of the oldest Universalist clergymen in the country, died on Thursday at his home in Ny-ack, N. Y., after a short illness, at the advanced age of 92. Dr. Johnson was born in the town of Danvers, Mass., and came to Norwich in 1840.
He was a member of the Universalist church of Danvers, and was a deacon of the church at the time of his death.
He was a man of great piety and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Norwich town council and was a member of the Universalist church of Norwich. He was a man of great piety and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Norwich town council and was a member of the Universalist church

NORWICH TOWN.
Members of Taftville Congregational Church at Sheltering Arms—King's Daughters' Service at Hospital—Local Miscellany.

At the Sheltering Arms Sunday afternoon a pleasing service was conducted by Rev. Donald B. MacLaine and the choir of the Taftville Congregational church. Rev. Mr. MacLaine gave an inspiring talk upon the text, Peace, he still, after an anxious and harmoniously sung by the choir.
Miss Nellie Howey playing the piano accompanied sympathetically.
The service was a most delightful one. At the close of the service, Rev. Mr. MacLaine delighted all with a number of violin solos.

At Backus Hospital.
Sophy W. Wetzel circle of the King's Daughters was in charge of the service at the Backus hospital on Sunday afternoon, they having arranged for this to be conducted by a number of the members of Every Ready circle of the King's Daughters, who sang pleasingly many familiar hymns besides many others not so well known. The service was greatly appreciated. Miss Ruth L. Potter skillfully accompanied the singers on the piano.

Rival Claims.
At the First Congregational church on Sunday morning, Rev. George H.
Wing spoke from Genesis 22:7 for the children's sermon. His other text was Rom. 12:14. But yet on the Lord Jesus Christ and make not provision for the flesh. Rev. Mr. Wing spoke of the gracious but insistent claims upon our life; Jesus Christ, His love, authority and rightful claim upon our lives was also touched upon.
Two forces, our higher and lower nature, are all the while contending with each other for supremacy.

At Methodist Church.
At the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday morning, Rev. Jerome Cro-wer spoke from Acts 17:22-31 for the children's sermon. His other text was Rom. 12:14. But yet on the Lord Jesus Christ and make not provision for the flesh. Rev. Mr. Wing
spoke of the gracious but insistent
claims upon our life; Jesus Christ,
His love, authority and rightful claim
upon our lives was also touched upon.
Two forces, our higher and lower
with each other for supremacy.

Whist of Five Tables.
Mrs. Sara Holcombe of Town street entertained last week at whist, there being five tables. The lady's prize was won by Mrs. Miner of Taftville and first gentleman's prize awarded Mr. Parkin. The second lady's prize was taken by Miss Florence Robinson and the second gentleman's award was given George B. Dawson. After the playing an enjoyable social hour was spent.

Personal and General.
Frank W. Barber spent Sunday visiting friends in Jewett City.
John E. Luther of Springfield spent Sunday at his home on Town street.
Fred Miller of Hartford spent Sunday at his home on West Town street.

the guest of local friends for a few days.
Miss Amelia Mabrey and Pelatiah Mabrey of Franklin were local visitors on Sunday.

Mrs. E. R. Kinney, who has been confined to her home on Town street by an attack of the grip, is able to be out.
At the Sacred Heart church on Sunday at both masses, Rev. C. T. Mc-Cam read the Lenten rules and regulations.
Addison Dodge of Springfield has been spending several days the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O.
Dodge of West Town street.

On Saturday evening the Plain Hill Eschere club met at the home of the president, H. Wardsworth Stott. Refreshments were served by the host and graphophone selections were enjoyed during the evening.

Rev. Edward Huntington Smith is making a ten day stay in New Hampshire and Massachusetts, attending the New England congress held in Manchester, N. H. He will preach at
